...our President & Transition Team

President

I would like to start off by saying thank you to all that elected me to the office of Congregational President. I look forward to serving the congregation in the year to come. I ask for your patience as I learn the duties of the office. I look to God for guidance.

I look forward to discussing any issues or concerns that you may have. I teach Sunday morning Confirmation class, so I am unavailable between services. I typically attend the 10:30 service and am available after that. My email is VWPeder@juno.com and my phone is 715-441-3357. Feel free to contact me as needed.

The next few years could be challenging, but I know we are a strong congregation. I will be focusing on the Transition Committee for the next couple of months. Please let any of the members of the committee know your feelings. We would like to get a Call Committee formed in the next couple of months.

Peace,
Peder Parizek

Transition Team

The Transition Team met on March 21, 2023. At the meeting we discussed and finalized the decision to create a Call Committee that will call a transition pastor to work with Pastor John.

Other items discussed at the meeting were: We have asked Pastor John to make a list of his duties as the pastor at Peace. This list will aid in future decisions made by both the Transition Team and the Call Committee. Nancy Rowe has volunteered to put up prayer tents in the fellowship hall to ask for continued prayers as we move forward in our transition process.

The team will meet again on April 18, 2023, to discuss and finalize a timeline for the process moving forward.

Thank you!

Nicole McKone

The Empty Tomb Means “Emmanuel” [God With Us]!

Mary Magdalene was filled with distress when she discovered the empty tomb on that first Easter morning. The two disciples who ran to check out the grave site were filled with questions when they saw the folded grave cloth. The other disciples were filled with fear and locked themselves in an apartment fearing repercussions from the mobs. An empty Easter egg is filled with discouragement for the one who finds it. The empty egg is a better symbol for Easter than one filled with treats.

Empty often brings feelings of disappointment, distress, and discouragement, but the empty tomb on Easter Sunday was filled with hope for the world. The empty tomb became a resurrection miracle. When we feel isolated and alone, our emptiness leaves plenty of room for Jesus to enter.

I struggle with all the “extra images” of the Church Holy days. I feel like a party-pooper when the image of God is taken from front and center stage and moved to the back or God’s story is removed completely, making lights/tinsel/wrapping paper/artificial grass/baskets/elf and rabbit/poinsettia and lily/and EASTER EGGS the primary focus point of us getting something of value on the day. The significance of a Holy Day can be lost to the value of the gift.

To offset this idea of “getting” at Christmas, I have used someone else’s idea of putting an envelope in the Christmas tree with a note telling the recipient that something was done in their name at Christmas – feeding a hungry family, fitting a child with a winter hat/mittens/coat, paying an energy bill. What could we do to recall the gift of Easter?

It might be a good idea to intentionally give your guests one empty Easter egg with time taken to discuss how the empty egg is the sign of an empty tomb, and the empty tomb is filled with hope, promise, and the sign of The Resurrection, “He is not here.” Spend some of your time sharing thoughts of a time you have been disappointed, rejected, alone. Recall the way someone came and shared your disappointment and gave you the gift of their time, energy, support.

It is easy for us to celebrate and proclaim our God as present when we are filled, happy, and content on the receiving end of the Holy Days. It is much harder to celebrate and proclaim our God when we are feeling alone, hungry, cold, or disappointed.

We all have friends and family who are dealing with disappointment, with loss, with separation, with rejection, and even with death. Do these people really need some jelly beans or a chocolate rabbit?

Join me in filling your Easter guests with love, support, encouragement, and the love of Emmanuel – God with us – Jesus. The “Bread of Life” will fill and sustain us through difficult times and will empower us to being people who are less concerned about what we got at Easter to remembering what God says to us every day, “I love you so much, give me your disappointments and let me fill them.”

HAPPY EASTER! JESUS IS ALIVE! PEACE, PR JOHN’S PEN

BOARD of DEACONS

March 12, 2023

Present: Robert, Joy, Rachel, Nicole and Sharon. Nicole will attend council meetings as Deacon representative for the near future or if she is unable to attend.

Rachel reported that she had talked to Pastor John about the Comforts of Home in Baldwin. He will check directly with them to see what services (if any) they would like to have from the Baldwin church community.

Next meeting will be Sunday, April 16th at 9:15 a.m.
Meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Respectfully submitted, Sharon Hauschild, secretary

BOARD of EDUCATION

March 13, 2023

Members present: Missi, Laurie,

Leah, Gail & Stacy.

Missions: March – Family Resource Center. April – Police Dept care packages.

Sunday School Bags – We will start next year with fresh supplies.

Council meetings: Laurie will attend the March meeting and Missi will attend the 4/18 meeting.

Lenten Supper: March 22nd is our turn! Menu as follows: tomato Soup, white chili, grilled cheese sliders, milk, water, crackers and a variety of desserts.

Bake Sale: Sunday, April 2nd, from 7:30 – 10:30am. We are looking for donations and buyers for our annual bake sale! Please bring your items packaged and ready to go that Sunday morning. All donations are a free will offering.

Silent Messengers: Sunday, April 2nd, at both 8:00 and 10:30 services. Board of Ed is providing snacks for the group. The bible study group has graciously agreed to meet in the choir room that day, so we can have this group set up in the Fireside room (closest to the sanctuary). Little kids are singing on April 2nd at the 10:30 service as well. Angie has the palm branches ordered. Stacy will pick up on 4/1 and get them out to the church.

Announcements for Silent Messengers and Bake Sale:

Gail will speak at both the 8am and 10:30 services on 3/19 and 3/26.

Substitute Teachers: We are still building a list, if you would like to be added to the list, please reach out to Angie or any of the Board members.

Vacation Bible School: Theme will be "High Seas Expedition." Dates are Aug 7-10 from 5:30 – 7pm each day. Stay tuned for further information and registration information.

Next meeting: April 10th @ 6:30pm.

Respectfully submitted, Stacy Shafer

BOARD of STEWARDSHIP

March 19, 2023

Present: Sherri, Kathy, Heather, DeAnn, and Scott.

Welcome to Heather Serier who has joined our committee.

Thank you, Heather! DeAnn shared the devotion. The meeting was spent mostly talking about our role in helping get the word out about the Endowment Fund. It was discussed that we will write something up to put in the monthly newsletter. We hope to meet with the Trustees during their May meeting in regard to this fund. We closed with the Lord's prayer.

Next meeting: Sunday, April 16.

Respectfully submitted, DeeDee Ashlin
