CONGREGATIONAL MEETING, OCTOBER 22, 2023

A special congregational meeting regarding voting on extending a call to Pastor Christian Magnell was held on Sunday, October 22nd, at 11:30am.

A quorum of at least twenty-five voting members was present.

The meeting was called to order by President Peder Parizek, followed by a word of prayer. Queries were raised about the budget supporting two pastors, and who is responsible for moving expenses. It was confirmed that we would have two pastors to allow current Pastor John time to train the new person. The Board of Trustees confirmed payment for two pastors was included in this year's budget; salary, keeping in mind the parsonage, and responsibility for moving expenses would be negotiated if a call is made.

A motion was made by Nancy Rowe to extend a call to Pastor Christian Magnell, seconded by Tashia Parizek and passed by majority vote.

Special thanks to the Call Committee for their hard work!

A motion was made by Pastor John Hanson to adjourn, seconded by Jimmy Hauschild, carried.

Respectfully submitted, Nerissa Krosnoski, Vice President

We Did a Thing!!!

Peace Lutheran Church members voted to extend a Letter of Call for Pastor Christian Magnell to serve as pastor here at Peace! This wasn't a person being hired off their request for an application. This wasn't done by a single person, a board, or the Council. This was done at a Congregational Meeting and was voted on by those present. The Letter of Call is in the mail, and we now await to see if Pastor Christian and his family prayerfully accept this opportunity to serve with us in ministry at Peace.

This is a big deal. There is a lot going on here that we don't see in the world of business. To extend a Letter of Call is to invite someone into our church as a mutual member, into our community as fellow servant, and into our lives as a person we can share our joys, our sorrows, and all that the years will bring. I know of no other "job" offering out there that puts that opportunity into Pastor Christian's hands AND ours!!

I need you to know that this is a wonderful opportunity for Peace Lutheran to show the composition of our church, what we are made of. From my first interview with the Call Committee of Peace in 1992, I felt a welcome and support that I had not felt in my years of service in the church. The welcome was palpable! Julie was six months pregnant when we arrived and shortly after, on bed rest. Peter, a three-year old boy, ready to explore the site, having moved from a Bible Camp in Waupaca to a "rural" church setting, there were many new things to explore! Our family was surrounded by people of all ages who worked to prepare the parsonage and introduce us to the people, as well as invite us into their family focuses of baptisms, weddings, funerals, birthdays, and anniversaries. It was unlike anything I had experienced as a Bible Camp Director. It was WONDERFUL.

Little did I know that when I came, there had been some division among the members for any number of reasons. I mean, here was a guy with a guitar up in front sitting on the floor with the children during the children's sermon who encouraged the people to shake a hand or give a high five during a hymn of the service. There was also a time of questioning because the state and nation had come through a time of economic struggle and people were rather fearful of how we could ever afford this new Pastor (note the term is not employee!)

But we made it happen then with all the people of Peace. And now, I am asking us to do it again. Do it all over again. The Letter of Call was made by us, whether or not you were in the building for the vote, it was made by us. We also have made a commitment to let Pastor Christian and his family become a full part of our church family and our community. We have an obligation to create a space for them to live, not just so he can be available to us, but so that we can be available to his family. And now, as he stated in his sermon when he worshiped with us in September, call him Pastor Chris!

What can you do? First, say a prayer that God will give Pastor Chris and his family a sense of peace as they discern the position of Pastor at Peace Lutheran Church whether or not he accepts the call. Second, help Peace Lutheran Church finish the work to make the church parsonage ready for them to come. Third, come and see. Come and see the things we have to offer to our whole church family and review the ways we can improve or even extend our ministry further beyond our membership and into the world.

Please recruit, entice, empower, cajole – do whatever you can – to help us get our parsonage ready for occupancy. Then, pray that "Thy will be done" here at Peace and throughout the world. We did a thing, now may God empower us to do even more, together!

Peace, Pr John's Pen

WOMEN of PEACE October 12, 2023

The Women of Peace met on Thursday, October 12, 2023, at 1:30 p.m. with eight members present. The meeting was called to order by the president, Joanne Melander. The minutes of the August meeting were read. Motion to accept by Bonnie Braymen, seconded by Marie Ista. Motion carried.

Marie gave the treasurer's report, which showed income from a funeral and the sale of greeting cards. Motion to accept by Bonnie, seconded by Nancy Larson. Motion carried.

Bonnie has made a Calendar of Events for the Women of Peace to help us to remember all the projects we do regularly during the year. There was much discussion about this.

Nancy Rowe provided cards for Felix and Rochelle for us to sign.

A Thankoffering service will be held on the first Sunday in November. All the quilts will be displayed on the pews. Bonnie will prepare a power point presentation for the big screen to show the congregation what the Women of Peace do. An offering will be taken to help cover the cost of these projects.

Bonnie made a motion that the Women of Peace pay the postage for the Cradle Roll. The Board of Education sends out the cards. Motion seconded by Nancy. Motion passed.

Shirley Rode made a motion to adjourn, seconded by Marie. The meeting adjourned at 2:45 p.m.

The Bible study on Jezebel was led by Nancy. She was a wicked woman and to this day no one names their daughter Jezebel. Vi brought a record she had purchased before her marriage in 1953, which was of Frankie Laine singing Jezebel. Bonnie was able to bring it up on her laptop so we could hear him singing the song over 70 years ago.

We concluded with the Lord's Prayer. Dessert and coffee were served by Bonnie. Our next meeting will be Thursday, November 9, with Joanne as hostess.

BOARD of DEACONS October 15, 2023

Present: Robert, Rachel, Nicole, Joy, Josh and Sharon.

It was noted that the Deacons will need to find two (2) new people for 3-year terms each. Neither Josh nor Nicole will be serving additional terms as deacon.

Nicole reported that the Transition Committee, which she is on, may be setting up "meet and greet" meals when we get a new additional pastor. An example may be having each board or group put together a meal to serve and have the new pastor meet church members in small group format.

Looking ahead, it was noted that Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve fall on Sundays this year. Deacons recommended having one morning service only on these Sundays.

Next meeting will be Sunday, November 12th at 9:15 a.m.

Meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Respectfully submitted, Sharon Hauschild, Secretary

BOARD of TRUSTEES October 15, 2023

Secretary's Report: Two meetings took place to discuss new pastor compensation, one on October 1 and the other fully supporting the 50% position in the 2023 budget. Weston made a motion to approve the treasurer's report and Chris seconded. Motion carried.

Old Business:

1. Endowment Fund – Looking at a winter date to invite Joan Bartz to a meeting.
2. Peace Child Care – Now at full staff, looking to fill openings for children. Working on 2024 budget.
3. Facility Maintenance –
 - a. Roof improvements: The work planned on the sanctuary by Roof Tech was completed Thursday. They found vents that were not addressed during building addition and moisture from kitchen was exhausted into unconditioned space. Insulation was removed and repairs made. Areas were spray foamed for weatherization and blown insulation was reinstalled. Estimated cost is now $15k-$20k. Additionally, Roof Tech confirmed that there is significant enough hail damage from this summer storm to warrant an insurance claim. Cole will work with them to file appropriate paperwork. This will likely lead to full roof replacement.
 - b. Parsonage improvements: Work completed to date includes scraping ceilings, removing doors and closet shelving and demolition of bathroom.

Trustees still seeking volunteers soon for help. Estimated cost will be around $20k.

- c. Silent auction raised $10k. Additional anonymous donation made to reach the balance of the AC quote for the fellowship hall.
4. The compensation proposal was sent to Christian Magnell on Thursday, October 12. Jim communicated with Christian, and he was happy with the proposal.
5. Pastoral Office Space – No need to complete work until new pastor begins.

New Business:

1. Discussed the process for developing the 2024 budget. Amy will use a 4.7% increase in wages and salaries based on the Employer Cost Index. She will present updates at the November meeting.
2. Discussed the property near the town hall. Trustees agreed there is no need for the property and little value to us. Will ask township to make an offer.
3. Discussed need for painting Sunday School classrooms. Will make plans to address as time and volunteers allow.

Next meeting date: November 19, 9:15 am

Next council representative: Chris

Next month's review of books: Chris and Cole

Adjournment: Motion by Jeanette and seconded by Weston to adjourn 10:15 am and we closed with the Lord's Prayer.
