CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Lord God, we are grateful you have called us here to worship and grow, and we ask that your Spirit would teach us and guide us.

Father, we know that we fall short and sin against you in thought, word, and deed.

Teach us to reflect on our lives and lay our brokenness before you every day.

By the Spirit’s leading, let’s take a moment to reflect on our lives. (time for reflection)

Let’s pray together:

Lord God, we confess that we have sinned against you and those around us. We’ve ignored your call to live for you and for others. At the same time as ignoring your call on our lives, we have done things you’ve call us to leave behind. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, forgive us, renew us, and lead us to transformed living, Amen.

Almighty God in his mercy has given his Son to die for us and, for his sake, forgives us all our sins!

Thanks be to God!

SHARING OF THE PEACE

CHILDREN’S SERMON

HYMN

“House of the Lord”

READING: Psalm 12

David, in this psalm, laments the wickedness he sees in the world.

¹Save, O Lord, for the godly one is gone; for the faithful have vanished from among the children of man. ²Everyone utters lies to his neighbor; with flattering lips and a double heart they speak. ³May the Lord cut off all flattering lips, the tongue that makes great boasts, ⁴those who say, “With our tongue we will prevail, our lips are with us; who is master over us?” ⁵“Because the poor are plundered, because the needy groan, I will now arise,” says the Lord; “I will place him in the safety for which he longs.” ⁶The words of the Lord are pure words, like silver refined in a furnace on the ground, purified seven times. ⁷You, O Lord, will keep them; you will guard us from this generation forever. ⁸On every side the wicked prowl, as vileness is exalted among the children of man.
