WELCOME AND GREETING

HYMN “I Surrender All”

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Lord Jesus, we worship you as both priest and king,

As your people, we offer ourselves freely!

The Lord send forth from Zion your mighty scepter,

And we ask that you rule among us as well.

Part of Christ’s rule includes a reflection on what needs to change within us. (time for reflection)

Let’s pray together:

Father, we have sinned against you in our thoughts, our words and our actions. It seems like our faith is one step forward and two steps back at times. Forgive our sins, heal us, make us new, and teach us to follow you. Renew our hearts and minds for the sake of Jesus Christ.

This is the Good News: In the name of Jesus Christ we are forgiven and transformed by the Holy Spirit!

Thanks be to God!

SHARING OF THE PEACE

CHILDREN’S SERMON

BAPTISM (10:30) Lainey Mae Emmert

HYMN “Build Your Kingdom Here”

READING: Psalm 110

A prophecy of Christ, who is both priest and king!

¹The Lord says to my Lord: “Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies your footstool.”

²The Lord sends forth from Zion your mighty scepter. Rule in the midst of your enemies! ³Your people will offer themselves freely on the day of your power, in holy garments; from the womb of the morning, the dew of your youth will be yours. ⁴The Lord has sworn and will not change his mind, “You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.” ⁵The Lord is at your right hand; he will shatter kings on the day of his wrath. ⁶He will execute judgment among the nations, filling them with corpses; he will shatter chiefs over the wide earth. ⁷He will drink from the brook by the way; therefore he will lift up his head.

HYMN “King of Kings”

Psalm 110 – Devotional Thought:

I was listening to KFAN a couple of weeks ago. The hosts were debating whether or not they would remain fans of the Vikings if you could look into the future and know they would never win a Super Bowl in their lifetime. I know I would for a couple reasons: first, they’ve never won one and I’ve managed to exist just fine (and I’m not old enough to remember them even playing in one); second, I’m already working with the assumption it won’t happen in my lifetime!

But of course we can’t see the future for our sports teams or other actually important parts of our lives. There is one exception of course, and that is Scripture. Today’s Psalm looks ahead to the future (from around 980 BC) and foretells the victory of Jesus over sin, death and the devil. David knew he could look forward to his descendent achieving the ultimate victory, as God took on flesh in Jesus Christ and walked among us.

In a world of uncertainty, we can put our hope and trust in the truest thing ever – the love of God for us and his victory in grace and mercy!
