Prayers of the People

Confession and Forgiveness
P: The Church of God has an incredible mission.
C: It brings peace, hope, and love and most of all, the Word of God to a hurting world.
P: This is the calling we've had our whole lives, even from the womb.
C: God created us, called us by name, gave a purpose to our lives, and sends us out to serve.
P: It's not easy and we constantly fall short. Good intentions fall by the wayside. Take a moment to reflect on that.
(silence for reflection)

P: Let's pray together,
C: Lord God, we fall short in so many ways. We know we've got a mission, but sometimes it's easier said than done. We sin. We turn inward. We ignore your call. We sin in the things we do, and the things we neglect. Forgive us. Make us new each day. Use Your Word and Your Spirit to shape us, to make us people of peace, and to send out us into the world.
Amen.

P: Sisters and brothers in Christ, God forgives your sin for the sake of Jesus Christ. He has called you by name, will never give up and you, and has fashioned you to serve Him and the world around you.
C: Thanks be to God!

House Of The Lord

Reading 1

Isaiah 49:1-6
Listen to me, O coastlands, and give attention, you peoples from afar. The Lord called me from the womb, from the body of my mother he named my name.

He made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand he hid me; he made me a polished arrow; in his quiver he hid me away. And he said to me, “You are my servant, Israel, in whom I will be glorified.” But I said, “I have labored in vain; I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity; yet surely my right is with the Lord, and my recompense with my God.”
And now the Lord says, he who formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him; and that Israel might be gathered to him— for I am honored in the eyes of the Lord, and my God has become my strength—he says: “It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to bring back the preserved of Israel; I will make you as a light for the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth.”

My Jesus

Gospel Reading

Luke 10:1-9
After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them on ahead of him, two by two, into every town and place where he himself was about to go. And he said to them, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. Go your way; behold, I am sending you out as lambs in the midst of wolves. Carry no moneybag, no knapsack, no sandals, and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, ‘Peace be to this house!’ And if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest upon him. But if not, it will return to you. And remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they provide, for the laborer deserves his wages. Do not go from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and they receive you, eat what is set before you. Heal the sick in it and say to them, ‘The kingdom of God has come near to you.’
